TRUSTEES' MEETING

BOARD AUTHORIZES EMPLOYMENT OF ENGINEER IRWIN FOR FIVE MORE DAYS

The Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale met in regular session Thursday evening, June 5. All members were present. Minutes of the last previous meeting were read and approved.

The hearing of protests against the opening and widening of Orange Street from the northerly line of Lexington Drive to the southerly line of Milford Street, being set for hearing at this time, was taken up.

The clerk read a number of protests from individual owners of property affected and also a protest filed by Volney E. Philp and about sixty-five others, protesting against the assessment of their property for the proposed opening.

The City Engineer reported that he had checked up the protests on file, which represented 53 per cent of the property involved.

Arthur Brown addressed the Board favoring the improvement, and Rev. Willisford and Mr. Philp, the latter having circulated the protest, also spoke.

The discussion developed the fact that many of the protests had been made because of a wrong impression existing in the minds of the protestants as to the amount and distribution of the assessment.

On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the hearing of the case was continued until 8 o'clock p. m., June 26, 1919.

The chairman called for protests against the change of grade on a portion of Verdugo Road. There were no protestants present and no protests had been filed.

Application was received from L. Lombardo for permission to operate motor vehicles on a regular schedule

MR. LINDLEY'S ACTIVITIES

Arthur Lindley, the architect, has prepared plans and specifications for a new Methodist Church at El Monte which will be of Gothic type and built of brick with stone trimmings. Besides the church auditorium it will be arranged to meet the needs of a modern Sunday School and the social activities. The cost will be in the neighborhood of $20,000 and it will be built right away.

Mr. Lindley is also making plans for a new manual training building for the Spanish Institute at Gardena. That will be an $8000 building to be used for the instruction of Mexican boys in useful trades including mechanical work in wood and metals, printing, etc.

YELLOW AND WHITE LUNCHEON

Miss Elizabeth Bohannon, of 321 Myrtle Street, beautifully entertained about thirty ladies at a "yellow and white luncheon" on Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Thomson, 310 North Jackson Street. Centering the tables were coreopsis and matillija poppies, and a yellow decoration featured the place cards. The guest list included: Mesdames Wood, Reed, Sanford, Latter, Sprowles, Burdick, Bennett, Rowe, Ogg, Pollard, Haines, Charles Kent, Roy Kent, Gray, Howard, Myrtle Chase, Walker and Doxsee, Miss Doxsee, Miss Powell, Miss Thayer, Miss Pollard, Miss Edwards, Miss Cornwell, Mesdames Bright, Strong, Chase, Anderson, Jordan, Houdyshel, Kirk, Burns, Marsh, Maxwell, McElroy, Dow.

LONE SCOUTS

A BRAND NEW ORGANIZATION OF BOYS ONLY IN GLENDALE

We are pretty well acquainted with the Boy Scouts by this time but this little write-up pertains to another kind called the Lone Scouts. Harvey Gillette is the Scout Chief and he is mighty serious about it but is glad to give full information concerning this order, which numbers nearly 350,000. Harvey has instituted Modoc Tribe of Glendale and he has his head tepee in the back yard at his home, 123 North Cedar. He explains that there are seven degrees which one can take, but these are taken successively as he grows older. Any boy over 10 years old and of good, moral character is eligible to membership, but he must have his parents' consent. The boys take hikes and engage in athletic exercises. They may choose some man to act as Scout Adviser.

The headquarters of the order is at Chicago and a weekly paper is published there exclusively for Lone Scouts. It is the ambition of Harvey to see two or three tribes organized in Glendale and he offers his services in any capacity to assist in this desired work.

D. A. R. LUNCHEON

MEMBERS AND GUESTS OF RICHARD GRIDLEY CHAPTER ENTERTAINED BY MRS. BRALY

About forty members and guests of the Richard Gridley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained Thursday by Mrs. John Hyde Braly, Regent of the chapter, with a delicious mid-day luncheon at her beautiful home on North Brand Boulevard, where the organization generally holds its monthly meetings. The function marked the close of the chapter year.

The patriotic colors of the big American flag which is a conspicuous feature of the meetings, were repeated in the floral decorations of the four tables at which guests were seated, with a beautiful combination of scarlet and white carnations and blue cornflowers, in a setting of maidenhair and asparagus ferns.

The menu included baked spiced ham, mashed potatoes and peas, chicken salad, hot biscuits, olives, coffee, ice cream, cake and after dinner mints.

Upon the removal of the plates, Mrs. T. W. Preston and Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee were introduced as toastmistresses. Mrs. Preston opened this portion of the program with a roll call of members in alphabetical order, the ladies responding as their names were called with quotations of patriotic sentiment, some in verse, some in prose, but all so wonderfully good the reporter present wished there were room in the Evening News to include them all. Responses were made by Mesdames T. H. Addison, J. H. Braly, Lydia D. Border, Mrs. Butterfield, Mrs. Crawford, Mesdames Annie D. Goss, C. E. Houston, S. C. Leppelman, Harry LaGross, Martha Morris, Miss Ida Myers, Mesdames Laura C. Marsters of Los Angeles, J. R. Mitchell, Fannie Nichols, Mabel Franklin Ocker, Maria Patterson, Lizzie Peirce, Esther Pearce, H. Purrier, T. W. Preston, William Rathbun, J. Stone, Sarah Thompson and Carrie Wilson.

Mrs. Addison made a report of the pennies collected for the benefit of the babies at the maternity hospital in Los Angeles which the chapter has been helping to support. Before the luncheon ended her receipts amounted to more than $40.

When it was time for the toasts of the day, Mrs. Preston resigned her office to Mrs. Follansbee, who filled her part most graciously bringing to it a fund of anecdote and quotation which beautifully paved the way for each speaker, the first being Mrs. Braly, the hostess, introduced with a familiar but apt quotation from Owen Meredith to the effect that "we can live without love, what is love but repining, but where is the man who can live without dining?"

Mrs. Braly reminded her fellow members and guests that the great wheel, emblem of the order, its spokes reaching to all the states, is a symbol of union, and declared that "the dominant chord in the anthem of nations today whose solemn strains are sweeping over the whole world is 'Americanization'—America for Americans, and the 'Daughters' must take a new vow to promulgate the great principles on which America was founded, not forgetting needs of our own people in our zeal to aid the foreigner."

Mrs. Martha Morris, who spoke to the toast "The Daughters of the American Revolution," said it has been her privilege while in Annapolis to meet some rather distinguished naval officers, one of whom said to her in the course of conversation: "To my mind the measure of patriotism is the ideals we form for the good of our country, and the faithfulness with which we carry out those ideals." It seemed to her, she said, a very good motto for patriots. She then told of the various patriotic works undertaken by chapters, such as making accurate records of the men who entered service in the world war, their rank, decorations, citations and the names and addresses of their nearest kin. This data, she thinks, will be of immense value in the years to come. Others are making records of the ancestry of service men, especially those who can trace to soldiers of the American Revolution.

Miss Ida Myers responded to the toast: "America Victorious," in which she beautifully set forth the ennobling elements of the great war and the development it had brought to women, the thrift it has taught, the ban it has put upon alcoholic liquors and then said: "The victories of our boys on the battle fields will be short lived if we do not take these lessons to heart and translate them into permanent factors in our lives and homes. The world looks to America as the cradle of a new race. We will be true to this trust for others. We will solve our home problems in the right way. We will strive for a better, higher type of American citizenship for all within our gates and then truly will be: America Victorious."

When Mrs. Houston was called upon to respond to the toast: "The Returned Soldier," she explained that believing it would be a greater treat to members to hear from her dear mother she had turned the assignment to her and would now read what her mother was too modest to give herself. She eloquently described "our boys" returning with vision broadened by their experiences and said: "What satisfied them in civil life before is no longer their ideal now. It must be something higher, something better, more worth living

AMERICAN DELEGATION EMBARRASSED

REFUSAL OF "BIG FOUR" TO PUBLISH TEXT OF PEACE TREATY PUTS THEM IN AWKWARD POSITION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, June 6.—The "Big Four's" refusal to publish the text of the peace treaty is embarrassing the American delegation. The embarrassment is increased by the charges of Borah and Lodge in the United States Senate. It is understood here that copies of the treaty, printed in French, German and English, are for sale on news stands in Germany, Switzerland, Holland and several other neutral countries. It is understood that the American delegation feels strongly that the text should be given to the people of the United States.

A Berlin dispatch says Hugo Haase, Independent Socialist leader, has declared that Germany should try to have the treaty modified, but must sign whether or not modifications are made, because it will be worse off if it does not sign.

DAYLIGHT-SAVING LAW

HOUSE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE FAVORS REPEAL TO BE EFFECTIVE LAST OF OCTOBER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, June 6.—The House interstate commerce committee today favorably reported a resolution repealing the daylight-saving law, to be effective the last Sunday in October.

SURRENDER OF WIRES CALLED "FLIM-FLAM"

BURLESON SAID TO HAVE TURNED BACK RESPONSIBILITY, BUT RETAINED CONTROL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, June 6.—N. C. Kingsbury, vice-president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, today told the Senate interstate commerce committee that Postmaster General Burleson's order of yesterday returning wires to private control merely "wiped out the operating board and allowed the companies to take charge of actual operations," but that Burleson "still holds control over the wires."

Senator Kellogg charged: "Then this order is simply a piece of flim-flam," and asked, "Wasn't it perhaps the purpose to pass the buck on the strike?" Kingsbury did not answer. Kellogg charged that Burleson merely turned back responsibility but retained control.

STRIKING TELEGRAPHERS

REPORTS OF NUMBERS IN SOUTHEASTERN STATES VARY. OFFICIALS DECLARE STRIKE A "FLAT FAILURE"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, June 6.—Reports vary on the number of telegraphers who are striking in Southeastern States in response to the strike call of President Konenkamp of the Telegraphers' Union, which was issued yesterday. Konenkamp said his reports indicated a 100 per cent response. President Carlton of the Western Union declared the strike a "flat failure," and said that in some offices, notably in Atlanta, more men showed up this morning than there was work for. The strike leaders at Atlanta said that 95 per cent of telegraphers had responded.

HIRAM JOHNSON'S CAMPAIGN

TO BE NAMED AS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT AT REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING IN SAN FRANCISCO

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

San Francisco, June 6.—A Republican mass meeting was called here today for June 14, to launch a campaign for Hiram Johnson for President of the United States. Chester Rowell, Herbert Fleischacker, John Francis Neylan, Mrs. Katherine Edson, Irving Martin, Frank P. Flint, Meyer Lissner and Mrs. John M. Eshelman were among those who signed the call for the mass meeting. The call said:

"We believe Hiram Johnson, as President of the United States, would serve the nation as usefully as he has served California." It also declared that "Johnson is the most fit and only man to lead the party to victory in 1920."

THE DINNER DANCE

BRILLIANT FUNCTION AT ELKS' CLUB ENJOYED BY 260 MEMBERS AND GUESTS

What was declared to be "the first real dinner dance that Glendale has ever enjoyed," took place Thursday evening at the Elks' Club House and was a brilliant function which reflected great credit on the entertainment committee—Lou Sherman, chairman, and Romeo Angelica, Arthur Dibbern, Herbert Henning and Jack Hearnshaw.

The banquet room was a beautiful scene, set with tables of various sizes to fit the needs of the parties for which they had been reserved, besides large tables for single couples and small parties. Covers were laid for 260, all Elks or members of their families. Service started at 6:30 and lasted until 8 o'clock. While the dinner was in progress, guests danced at their pleasure to the music of a four-piece orchestra consisting of two saxophones, piano, drums and tango banjo, under the direction of "Blondie" Clark, who is a wizard in music of that kind. Entertainment was also furnished by a fine ballad singer, a young woman from Los Angeles.

The napery and appointments of the tables were exquisite and a varied floral setting made them wonderfully pretty, sweet peas being used in large quantities. A festive note was also added by the toy balloons of varied colors attached to ribbon bracelets which were bestowed upon the ladies as favors. Splendidly managed was the whole affair. Twenty waitresses were required for the serving, and there were no mistakes or disappointments.

Among the special tables was one reserved for the drill team at which thirty-six of their number were seated. The scheme of decoration for that included a tall, central vase of sweet peas and lower vases filled with pansies and American flags grouped at the ends, the central floral piece being illuminated by tiny electric light bulbs. Hand-painted place cards bore a pansy decoration.

A table reserved and decorated by George Hastings and Hal Philips for a party of twenty was placed on the stage in a setting of ferns and flowers and enclosed by velour portieres.

It would be impossible to enumerate all the parties, but the following table reservations were made: Frank Kuntzner and party of ten; Jack Waite and party of six; Jesse Smith and party of five; Peter Ferry and party of four; Earl Bryant and party of eleven; John Fanset and party of eight; Cameron Thom and party of eight, which included Catesby Thom of L. A. Lodge, No. 99, and his wife. William Walker of San Bernardino Lodge and Mrs. Walker were also out-of-town guests at the dinner.

At one table were A. D. Pearce and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Flint, Bert Woodard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dibbern. At two smaller tables were Harry Gibbs and wife, J. Hartley Taylor and family, Clinton Booth and family, Dr. Stone and Miss McCann. Smaller parties, as stated, were seated at the large tables.

Dancing began in the lodge hall about nine o'clock. The program included spot dances and a dancing contest for which prizes had been offered by business men of Glendale who are members of the lodge. They were all of real value. For instance, one lady won an order for $5 worth of dry cleaning, another in the "Ford Dance" a set of ball bearings, another a broom; two four-pound boxes of candy were given as prizes and three cans of coffee, the last prize being wall paper to cover a room, valued at $1.00 per roll.

The dancing contest started with 25 competing couples. The first vote eliminated all but four couples. The second vote reduced the number to two couples, viz., Jesse E. Smith and Miss Margaret Brennan, William Bode and Miss Dorothy Morton. The two last named were awarded the prizes, a $5 hat for the gentleman and a four-pound box of candy for Miss Morton.

RUSSEL SQUIER FOUND

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Squier will be relieved to know that after many wanderings he was finally found by his daughter and her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, in Los Angeles, Wednesday night about midnight. He was brought home where he now is and though very tired appeared to have suffered no injury from his adventure. He could give no account of where he had been.

Sol Clark of 504 North Louise will join J. J. Burke and John Hobbs, who are fellow members with him of Al Malaikah Temple, Los Angeles Shriners, in the trip to Indianapolis, Ind., to attend the Imperial Council. Mr. Clark is a member of the Patrol.

BROADWAY SCHOOL

COMMITTEE NAMED TO CONFER WITH SCHOOL BOARD REGARDING BOND ISSUE

In spite of the advertising given the meeting of the Grammar School Board of Trustees called at the Intermediate School Thursday evening to secure instructions from voters of the district in regard to action to be taken by the Board with reference to securing additional ground for the school site of the Broadway School, instructions regarding the disposition of the Eighth Street School site and with regard to the moving and restoration of the Broadway School building or the erection of a new one, only about forty persons responded to the call. It should be mentioned, however, that those who did come were substantial, public-spirited citizens interested in the welfare of the city and able to bring intelligent criticism to bear on the propositions submitted.

Mrs. Arthur Brown, president of the Board, called the Assembly to order, and read a portion of the school law providing for the calling of such a meeting, the text showing that the Board could be instructed by the meeting to sell or to hold the Eighth Street lot, also to move the building and would be bound by instructions received, but that its authority to erect a new building would have to be given by a vote of the people of the district, though the meeting would have power to instruct it to call an election to vote bonds.

Superintendent White then briefly set forth the fact that the Broadway School campus was originally smaller than any other in the city and that the cuts made in it by the opening and widening of Sycamore Canyon

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Thursday night's program at the Palace Grand was quite a variation from the customary entertainment as it was a variety entertainment furnished by the Glee Club of Occidental as a benefit for the Young Business Men's Class of the First Methodist Church of this city. A good college glee club spells pep and fun and always draws a good audience. About five hundred came out on this occasion and by their applause testified to their enjoyment. "Grand Opera Up to Date" was humorously suggestive and very clever. The program closed with a medley which included Occidental's College Song, and Occidental's Yells with an extra yell for Glendale. During this number Occidental students and graduates in the audience stood.

NEW FORD SALESMAN

Jesse E. Smith, Ford agent, has just added to his sales force Chas. I. O'Neill, a brother of Rev. James S. O'Neill. He has been with the Hibernian Savings Bank in Los Angeles for seven years past, but previous to that had been a resident of Glendale. He has many friends here who will be glad to place their orders for Ford cars with him.

A. E. Ecklebarger, formerly in the grocery business on North Verdugo Road and later with T. A. Wright on East Broadway, has bought a 40-acre alfalfa ranch near McFarland, just north of Bakersfield, and will move at once.

ALL ABOUT CHICKENS

EXPERT FROM STATE EXPERIMENT FARM TALKS TO GLENDALE RAISERS

Prof. N. C. Luse, U. S. field agent for the Department of Agriculture, who has been conducting feeding and housing experiments with poultry on the state farm at Davis, near Berkeley, met 17 poultry raisers of Glendale at the home of Mrs. R. P. Burr, 1123 Campbell Street, yesterday afternoon, and gave them some valuable pointers in a short lecture and by answering questions. He has conducted feeding experiments at Davis and is intimately acquainted with government housing methods and care of poultry, both in sickness and in health. He cheerfullly answered all questions put to him, and lectured on feeding, sanitation and other problems. Then he went out to Mrs. Burr's chicken yard and showed how to pick best layers. Prof. Luse's instructions about feeding young chicks and separating cockerels from pullets at earliest possible age, were revelations to some of those present and they derived valuable information therefrom. Every effort is being made by the Government to stimulate poultry raising and egg production, hence these free lectures by experts.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 6, 1919

IN LIFE'S GREEN

C. L. Peckham recently received from a doctor friend in Belgium a letter containing a clipping from the London Daily Mail, giving an account of the bringing home to England of Nurse Edith Cavell's body and containing a lengthy narrative of the inside facts about Miss Cavell's labors of love in saving from German beastliness intended Allied victims in Brussels and vicinity, and of her betrayal, innocently, by grateful recipients of her aid, whose letters thanking her for saving their lives fell into the hands of Von Bissing, the brutal German governor. The account of the body's homecoming follows:

Norwich is a city of Saxon founding and knew its Edith long ago, but never had it a richer gift to hold and cherish than the remains of Edith Cavell, which will be brought to it today. She is coming home, not to the Norfolk vicarage where she was born, but the four miles farther, where the full heart of Norwich waits to do her honor in its stately temple, and has prepared her sleeping-place in Life's Green—a quiet inner haven within the serene and mellow Close.

She is coming home not, as she used to climb the hill, unknown, to see her mother, but in majestic death, home, across our pleasant land this Maytide day. This is no hour for gloomy thoughts, but for sorrow to be outshone by pride and holy joy. This is the blossom-time of thorns.

Not to every generation is it given to see a niche in the fane of its national story so nobly filled. Not to every race of women is vouchsafed the living presence of so rare a type of steadfast faith and love. Did she not know in her heart that the work of compassion which she began would survive her?

When she was condemned to die, only two days before the German bullets pierced her breast, she wrote to the nurses at her Brussels school: "When brighter days come our work will resume its growth and all its power for doing good."

We shall leave her sleeping in Life's Green, an ever-living memory, and never shall we see the spire of Norwich but we shall remember that of all the great ones lying there within the old grey walls, or in their shadow, none has left a nobler story, none a fairer name.

Anarchists ordered deported always put up a desperate fight to remain in this country. Seems queer they want to stay here if it is such an undesirable land to live in. The truth is that a government of their own planning would not suit them for a week. The only way to treat these professional anarchists is to send them back where they came from, and then our immigration laws should be so framed as to keep all the tribe away from our shores.

Mr. Wood of Hollywood was a Sunland caller Monday.

A bunch of the Sunland young people enjoyed a weinie bake in the park Saturday evening.

Sunday was a big day in the Sunland park. The people from the cities were glad to get out and enjoy the shade of the lovely live oaks.

The demand for small acreage in Sunland is keeping the realty men busy. Business men of Los Angeles and Pasadena want suburban homes and find the climate and water and altitude, which is 1500 feet, suited to their needs. As the land is mostly owned by a few who do not see the need of subdivision it is hard to supply the demand. But there are a few good buys in Sunland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson were shopping in Los Angeles Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Belt of Berkeley, May 20th, a 7½-lb. boy. Mrs. Belt will be remembered as Miss Ruth Smart, one of the Sunland girls.

Mrs. Thorries moved her household goods to Los Angeles this week and has her house to rent vacant instead of furnished.

Elmer Adams was badly stung by his bees when taking off honey this week.

Mrs. Ross Drake had for guests Friday her sister and husband from Los Angeles.

SAN GABRIEL HIGHWAY FUNDS ARE VOTED

Through the adoption of a resolution to include in the 1919-1920 and 1920-1921 budgets sums aggregating $95,000, the Board of Supervisors recently paved the way for the construction of the San Gabriel canyon scenic highway. The United States Government has made $125,000 available for this work, providing the county spends a like amount.

In case the people of the state approve the proposed $40,000,000 bond issue and vote for its adoption, the money set aside by the county will not be needed for the San Gabriel canyon road, but will be taken from the state funds.—The Golden West.

DOING THINGS

"There are thousands to tell you 'it can't be done,'
There are thousands to prophesy failure,
There are thousands to point out one by one
The dangers that wait to assail you.
But you just buckle in, with a bit of a grin,
Then take off your coat and go to it—
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing
That couldn't be done, and you'll do it-"

The thing to be done is more important than the method of doing it.

Road and of Broadway had reduced it to about one acre as compared with the average school area of three acres. He described vacant property at the north, four lots on Wilson, 50x150, offered at $700 each, and four on Sycamore Canyon, 50x250, each with a 15-foot alley, offered for $900 each, and the Key lot $250 or a total of $6650, free and clear of any costs incurred to date for the street improvements mentioned, which he considers reasonable, and which he said would furnish ground enough. The reason the ground had not been purchased before, he said, was because of the fear the site would have to be abandoned on account of the Sycamore Canyon wash. Flood waters will now be taken care of and the site has become valuable for school purposes.

He explained the necessity of moving the building if it is to be retained and the high cost of doing the moving and making the necessary improvements, for which the damage award from the city ($3000) would be wholly inadequate. He referred to the suggestion made to the board that it sell the Eighth Street site of three acres and apply the proceeds to the Broadway needs inasmuch as the Acacia Avenue and Broadway Schools are sufficient to meet the needs of that part of the city.

Roy Kent was then called upon to recite to the meeting the estimates he had made for the board of improvements and repairs to be made in the Broadway building should it be moved. These included raising the building 30 inches from its present foundation; moving it 25 feet; fitting up an auditorium 44 by 70 feet underneath the building and the necessary steel girders to widen the span; putting in a small stage and dressing rooms; a kitchen and cupboards in the back for use at entertainments; on the main floor converting the library into a rest room for teachers with toilet, lockers, kitchenette, sink; building a series of book cases in the corridors; new cement steps in front with concrete retaining walls and two approaches to the auditorium, of reinforced concrete; creating new stairway in the court to the basement which would make three exits in case of fire; and two coats of paint all over the building for a total cost of $8500.

Mrs. Brown had meanwhile been voted into the chairmanship of the meeting against her protests.

Charles Grist opposed the sale of the Eighth Street site on the ground that it might some time be needed and then would cost much more. All other speakers favored the sale of the property though it was agreed the site would not now bring the price paid, $7500.

All agreed that a new building on Broadway would be a better proposition than to spend $8500 on patching up the present one and an additional $4000 to move it.

Declaring that the Eighth Street proposition was not vital either way, Ezra Parker moved that the board be authorized to sell that site for $7500, which would insure the district against loss and at the same time give them authority to sell when the price could be realized; but his motion was defeated in favor of Mrs. A. A. Barton's, authorizing the board to sell without naming a price; which would leave officials free to sell or hold as they saw fit.

Ezra Parker then moved that the board be instructed to buy the lots that had been spoken of adjacent to the Broadway School at a figure not to exceed the price mentioned, which motion carried with no dissenting voice.

It being clearly the sentiment of those present that an election to vote on a bond issue for a new building should be called and no estimates being available to determine the probable cost, which would depend on size, materials used, equipment, etc., after considerable discussion and some motions which were withdrawn, a motion made by Mrs. Barton was carried that a committee of three be elected by the meeting to confer with the board in regard to the needs of the district and the amount necessary to meet those needs, this committee to report at a meeting to be called by the board.

The motion was the outgrowth of statements made by Mr. White in regard to urgent needs in other schools which have become overcrowded, viz., the Intermediate and Columbus Avenue, where a kindergarten building is urgently needed. He also mentioned the triangular strip of ground needed to complete the campus of Cerritos Avenue School. These improvements, he thought, could be made for $15,000, while the Broadway School of eight or preferably ten class rooms, would cost from $35,000 to $60,000.

Obedient to the motion, Mrs. J. Ogden Ryan, Mrs. W. A. Kulp, and Ezra Parker were nominated and elected as the committee of three to investigate school needs of the district, secure estimates, confer with the board and report back to the voters.

There was harmony of sentiment even on the sale of the Eighth Street site and unanimous agreement on the necessity of a new building at the Broadway site. Those who participated in the discussion were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meeker, Rev. E. H. Willisford, Rev. A. B. Smart, Charles Grist, W. F. Wood, Ezra Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton, Arthur Brown, and, of course, R. D. White, when appealed to for information.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

over the San Fernando Road to Burbank, Lankershim and Van Nuys. On motion of Trustee Shaw, the hearing of the application was set for 8:15 p. m., June 26, 1919, before the Trustees in the City Hall.

Reports were presented and filed from the city Treasurer, tax collector, recorder and building inspector.

Trustee Henry offered an ordinance providing for the change and establishment of grade on a portion of Verdugo Road, which was read and laid over.

The city manager presented a written report in regard to the work of the Glendale & Montrose Railway Co. on Wilson Avenue and Glendale Avenue. The communication recommended that a permit be granted to the railroad company to locate tracks as set forth in a diagram, and suggested further that in granting a new franchise to the company certain provisions be incorporated in the same. On motion of Trustee Woodberry, it was ordered that the recommendation of the city manager in regard to the Glendale & Montrose Railway Co. be concurred in, and that the city attorney is requested to furnish a written opinion, to be filed with the proceedings, as to the liability of the city in the premises. The motion was adopted.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that the application of the Tropico Feed and Fuel Co. for permit to install scales opposite their place on San Fernando Road be denied.

The engineer of the Public Service Department presented specifiications No. 1, being general specifications of the City of Glendale for overhead pole line construction, which on motion of Trustee Shaw were adopted. The engineer of the Public Service Department also presented specifications describing the work to be done in installing electrical improvement for Municipal Improvement District No. 2 of the City of Glendale, which specifiications were, on motion of Trustee Shaw, adopted, and the city clerk instructed to advertise for bids for the installation of electrical equipment. Said bids to be opened at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, June 12, 1919.

The engineer of the Public Service Department made a report on the condition of the Forest Grove Water Company in Verdugo Canyon, which property, under recent contract, is to be taken over by the city. On motion of Trustee Shaw the chairman of the Board of Trustees was authorized to join with the Forest Grove Land Company in an application to the Railroad Commission of the State for permit for the City of Glendale to take over the said water system.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the Glendale and Montrose Railway Co. was granted an extension of two weeks' time within which to do certain work at the junction of Glendale Avenue and Broadway.

Mr. Irwin, telephone expert employed by the city, reported progress, and on motion of Trustee Jackson his employment was authorized for five days more.

Personals

Mrs. R. E. Downing and Mrs. Judson Prater spent Thursday on the ranch of Mrs. Gower near Burbank.

Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker goes to Ventura this week to be the guest of friends there for a few days.

Mrs. P. M. Peterson, of McFarland, Cal., and four sons, are visiting Mrs. Lydia Border of 217 North Louise street for a week and are then going to Long Beach.

R. M. Jackson of 344 North Maryland Avenue has returned from a six weeks' stay at Hermosa Beach. He declares he has almost entirely recovered from his serious illness of the winter.

Friday afternoon at the Congregational Church there will be a meeting of mothers of the scholars in the Sunday School classes. It will be in charge of Mrs. Yarrick and all mothers will be welcome.

Preparations are proceeding for a big time at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson, 525 South Central, tomorrow evening at the benefit for the Glendale Community Sing. Mrs. E. D. Yard, Mrs. C. A. Cole and Mrs. Goss will have charge of serving the coffee and the Musical Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club have assumed the responsibility for the punch.

John M. Hague, of Oak Street, a Glendale mail carrier, is rejoicing over the success which has been attained by his brother, Wesley Hague, who is graduating from Annapolis with highest honors. Young Hague is said to be the first boy to enter Annapolis from the enlisted personnel of the navy who has won first honors. He has led his class ever since entering the naval academy. He is a San Diego boy and won honors as a debater in the high school there. His record is remarkable, inasmuch as he has attained his success through his own efforts.

Alexander Mitchell, president of the Community Sing, reports that Hugo Kirchoffer, who has been leading Glendale's chorus, leaves today for Indianapolis, where he will lead in song the big Shriners' Convention. He will also stop en route at Salt Lake to lead a chorus of 12,000 voices in the Tabernacle, a building renowned for its perfect acoustic properties. Mr. Kirchoffer's place on the program at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson Saturday night will be taken by Z. Earl Meeker, a baritone soloist, and teacher of Los Angeles, director of the Boyle Heights Methodist Church Choir, and his contributions, it is declared, will be a treat.

COLORADO P.-T. A.

The last meeting of the Colorado P.-T. A. was held June 5th, with a splendid crowd present. Mr. Richardson D. White spoke briefly in behalf of the "Glendale City Teachers' Club." Mrs. Frank Arnold very sweetly sang "In the Time of Roses or When the Roses Begin to Bloom," and in response to an encore, gave "Violets." Eugene Kille gave violin solos, "The May Pole Dance" and "An Evening Story," accompanied by his instructor, Miss Heloise Desiree Coutolenc. The repeating of the school Memorial program given for the old soldiers, by some of the children, was much enjoyed. Those taking part in same are as follows: "The Drummer Boy," by Ralph Timothy; "Immortal Heroes," by Arthur Timothy; "The Flag," by Albert Carroll; "America's Answer," by Eugene Wernette; "America's Come," by Thelma Barker; "The New Memorial," by Marguerite Keeley. For the children's closing party at the close of the school, it was decided to give them a party on the school grounds June 17th, with cake and ice cream for a treat, in the afternoon after school, so all the children can be present.

The year's reports showed much work on the part of all chairmen. Picture vote was in favor of the fourth year room. The program committee was disappointed on finding it was impossible for the speaker, Dr. Maud Wild, to be present. This closed a very happy and enjoyable year's work.

THE MUTUAL BENEFIT READING CIRCLE

In spite of the hot weather the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle which meets at the residence of Mrs. Chas. Toll is holding large and enthusiastic meetings.

Plans are under way for the annual picnic to be held June 18th. Mrs. Colton, who has charge of the entertainment, is going around with a smile and a mysterious air which has added greatly to the interest and enthusiasm.

The Circle is nearing the completion of the book, "A Montessori Mother," by Dorothy Canfield Fisher. Madam Montessori's methods as related by this author have given rise to much helpful discussion.

It is Madam Montessori's belief that the child reaches his highest development only when he has the greatest liberty that can be given for the development of his individuality without trespassing on the rights of others.

It has been decided to hold no summer sessions of the Reading Circle after June 18th, but to reconvene the Wednesday following the opening of school in September.

CATHERINE B. HENRY,
Chairman of Publicity.

U AND I CLUB

The U and I Club held a meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. C. Richardson, of 1856 South Brand Boulevard, at which Mrs. H. D. Cross made a fine talk on the Boy Scout movement. Her husband is chairman of Boy Scouts in eleven states and she has had special sources of information. Evelyn Hornung gave two piano numbers. Officers for the coming year were elected and Mrs. W. H. Hillman was made president; Mrs. L. C. Richardson, vice-president; Mrs. J. Ashton, secretary; Mrs. H. E. Fry, treasurer. Miss Ida Myers, who has been president for two years, was presented with a big bouquet of roses by Mrs. Herman Oelschlager, on behalf of the club, to which Miss Myers appropriately responded, thanking the officers and committees for their co-operation and efficient service during her term of office and prophesying great success for the club in the future.

and working for. Many of these brave men have left on the sodden fields of France their comrades, bombed, gassed, shelled and crucified, a memory they would fain blot out because of its awfulness, but also a memory that will bring to mind sweet friendships that will ever stimulate them to purer lives, braver deeds and higher ideals."

Mrs. Rathbun responded to "Our Babies," declaring that "since time began babies have caused some little stir in the world, that little Moses was saved at a time when boy babies were a cause of much suffering; the baby Jesus, long watched for, came as a herald of good tidings and peace on earth. Today is baby's day, with classes for mothers in babies' care and feeding, we have baby milk stations, baby magazines, creches for the babies of mothers who work, baby nurseries in department stores, and every possible opportunity is given to babies to bring about the development which will make for the best type of American citizenship. The chapter's babies are those of the maternity cottage, which were twelve in number on my last visit, and it is our privilege to do what we can for them that they may become men and women who will—in the language of the constitution—'insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, and promote the general welfare of the people of the United States of America!"

Mrs. Marsters in her characteristic manner, with well rounded phrases and lofty sentiments, set forth "The Future of the Daughters," in a manner calculated to inspire large accessions to the chapter ranks.

In introducing the next speaker, John Hyde Braly, husband of the Regent, and one who has a big place in the regard of chapter members, Mrs. Follansbee declared that most chapters are a veritable "No Man's Land," but that Richard Gridley is a delightful exception in having Mr. Braly present at most of its meetings. In responding he voiced his own satisfaction in the relationship and in the fact that it had come to him through having been chosen by Mrs. Braly to be the head of her household. He also expressed his enjoyment of the program, and then repeated a wonderfully vivid description of the entry of American troops into the world war at the battle which brought the first victory to the Allies, just about one year ago, which account had been communicated to him by an officer who participated in that engagement.

Mrs. Esther Pearce made a fitting and poetic response to the toast: "California the Golden," the charm of which she declared "is no fitful charm and whoever has fallen under the spell of her beauty seeks no other mistress. No other land is so lovely, so constant, so generous, lying as it does between the Sierra's eternal snow and the desert's clear, hot breath," the toast ending with the recitation of McGroarty's beautiful "Just California."

Mrs. Braly thanked all who had contributed to the delightful program and expressed the hope that "you will all go forth to your vacations filled not only with love of country but love of home, and that your souls will be filled with a desire to help the aliens to know our country and our ideals better." She stated she had been asked to appoint a Chairman of Americanization, and she named Miss Ida Myers.

The session was closed with a rising vote of thanks to the host and hostess for having so delightfully entertained the chapter.

Guests of the chapter were: Mesdames J. H. Franklin, Cora W. Brown, E. W. Hayward, Sarah Jennings, Adel B. Purrier, Elizabeth W. Stanley, Margaret Gale, Grace Peterson, Theodore Peirce and Miss Rosmary Button.
